
Honoring
CLYDE NEKOBA
Distinguished Alumnus

Hilo High School Class of 1960

After graduation, Clyde attended San Francisco State University, where he earned his BA in Social Welfare. After graduating, he worked for the City and County of San Francisco as a Community Service Representative with the Western Region Redevelopment Project.

Returning to Hawaii, Clyde worked as a probation officer, social worker, workforce coordinator, and adult protective services supervisor, among other roles. He founded CMKD Enterprises, LLC, serving as its president to provide events and promotions services to a wide range of local businesses and non-profit organizations.

Clyde has also served the community as executive director of the Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Hawaii, general manager of the Hilo Stars of the Hawaii Winter Baseball League, and vice president and director of operations of the Hawaii Winter Baseball League.
